“Providing or collecting funds for the purpose of terrorism

4.(1) A person who in or outside Barbados directly or indirectly, unlawfully and wilfully, provides or collects funds or provides financial services or makes such services available to persons, in any case, with the intention that the funds or services are to be used, or with the knowledge that the funds or services are to be used, in full or in part

- (a) in order to carry out an act described in section 3(1);
- (b) for the travel of an individual to a State other than his State of nationality or residence for the purpose of committing, planning, preparing for, or participating in, an act described in section 3(1) or of providing or receiving training in committing, planning, preparing for, or participating in such an act;
- (c) by a person in respect of whom a terrorist designation order or counter-proliferation order is in force; or
- (d) by a related State actor in association with any act, plot, threat or programme connected with the proliferation of weapons of mass destruction, is guilty of an offence and is liable on conviction on indictment to imprisonment for a term of 30 years.

(2) For an act to constitute an offence under subsection (1), it is not necessary to prove that the funds or the financial services were actually used to carry out the offence.

(3) A person who

- (a) aids, abets, counsels, procures, incites or solicits the commission of an offence; or
- (b) conspires with another or others to commit an offence under subsection (1), is liable on conviction on indictment to be punished as a principal offender under that subsection.

(4) For the avoidance of doubt, a person does not contravene subsection (1)(c) or (d) where he acts in accordance with a restraining order.”.

Repeal and replacement of Part IV of Cap. 158*8. *Part IV of the principal Act is repealed and the following substituted:“PART IV*DESIGNATION OF PERSONS AS TERRORISTS AND TERRORIST ENTITIES*Designation of terrorists and terrorist entities

8.(1) The Director of Public Prosecutions may apply to a judge in Chambers for an order designating a person as a terrorist or terrorist entity, as the case may be, where

- (a)* the person is included in a list of individuals and entities designated by, or under the authority of, the United Nations Security Council as terrorists or terrorist entities;
  - (b)* the Director of Public Prosecutions has reasonable grounds to believe that the person has committed or participated in the commission of an offence referred to in section 3, 3A or 4; or
  - (c)* a request to designate a person as a terrorist or terrorist entity is transmitted to Barbados from another country, is supported by reasonable grounds for the designation and is accepted by Barbados.
- (2) An application for a terrorist designation order shall be
- (a)* made without delay and without notice; and
  - (b)* supported by affidavit deposing to the matters set out in subsection (1)(a) or (b), as the case may be.

(3) Where the Director of Public Prosecutions applies for a terrorist designation order, he shall at the same time apply to the judge for a restraining order to

- (a) freeze any
  - (i) property of the person against whom the terrorist designation order is made;
  - (ii) property that is wholly or jointly owned or controlled, directly or indirectly, by the person against whom the terrorist designation order is made;
  - (iii) property that is derived or generated from other property owned or controlled, directly or indirectly, by the person against whom the terrorist designation order is made;
  - (iv) property of a person acting on behalf of, or at the direction of, the person against whom the terrorist designation order is made.

where such property is situated in Barbados; and

- (b) prohibit the person against whom the terrorist designation order is made, directly or indirectly, from possessing, controlling or having access to any property.

(4) The judge shall without delay

- (a) make the terrorist designation order against the person where he is satisfied of the circumstances set out in subsection (1) (a) or (b) in relation to the person; and
- (b) where he makes the terrorist designation order, make, in accordance with the Proceeds and Instrumentalities of Crime Act, 2019 (Act 2019-17), a restraining order, where the requirements for the making of the restraining order under that Act are satisfied.

- (5) A person against whom a terrorist designation order is made may, within 60 days of the making of the order, appeal to the Court of Appeal against the decision of the judge and shall give the Director of Public Prosecutions at least 14 days' notice of the application.
- (6) The Director of Public Prosecutions may, within 30 days of the decision of a judge not to make a terrorist designation order against a person, appeal to the Court of Appeal against the decision and shall give such notice to the person as the court may require.
- (7) The Court of Appeal shall, upon an appeal under this section
- (a) hear any evidence or other information that may be presented by the Director of Public Prosecutions and may, at the request of the Director of Public Prosecutions, hear all or part of that evidence or information in the absence of the person concerned or any attorney-at-law representing the person. where the court is of the opinion that the disclosure of the evidence or information would be prejudicial to national security or endanger the safety of any person;
  - (b) provide the person concerned with a statement summarizing the evidence or information available to the court in order to reasonably inform the person of the reasons for the making of the terrorist designation order, without disclosing any evidence or information the disclosure of which would, in the opinion of the court, be prejudicial to national security or endanger the safety of any person;
  - (c) provide the person concerned with a reasonable opportunity to be heard; and
  - (d) direct the judge to make, confirm, vary or set aside the terrorist designation order, as the court considers appropriate.
- (8) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Evidence Act, Cap. 121, evidence shall not be excluded on the ground that it is hearsay, of whatever degree, in proceedings for a terrorist designation order or on an appeal under this section.

Review of terrorist designation orders

9.(1) The Director of Public Prosecutions shall every 6 months review every terrorist designation order made under section 8 in order to determine whether the circumstances referred to in section 8(1) continue to exist in respect of the person against whom the order was made.

(2) Where pursuant to a review referred to in subsection (1) or from information the Director of Public Prosecutions otherwise receives, he determines that the circumstances which led to a terrorist designation order being made against a person have changed or no longer exist, the Director of Public Prosecutions shall, in a timely manner, apply to a judge in Chambers for the variation or setting aside, as may be appropriate, of

- (a) the terrorist designation order; and
- (b) any restraining order made in relation to the terrorist designation order, and the judge may make such further orders as he thinks fit.

(3) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (2), the judge shall, where he is satisfied that the circumstances which led to a terrorist designation order being made against a person no longer exist, set aside the terrorist designation order and the restraining order.

Publication of terrorism designation orders etc.

10.(1) The Director of Public Prosecutions shall, where a judge makes, confirms, varies or sets aside a terrorism designation order or a related restraining order, cause notice of the decision to be published

- (a) electronically immediately; and

- (b) in the Official Gazette and at least 2 daily newspapers in circulation in Barbados, as soon as possible.
- (2) A notice referred to in subsection (1) shall contain sufficient particulars to enable any person, including any financial institution and non-financial business entity or professional, who may be affected by the decision to be reliably and adequately informed of the decision.

PART IVA

COUNTER-PROLIFERATION MEASURES

Interpretation of certain terms in Part IVA

10A.(1) For the purposes of this Part,

“listed person” means an individual, entity or vessel included in a list established by, or under the authority of, the United Nations Security Council as a list of individuals, entities or vessels against which measures for the prevention, suppression and disruption of the proliferation of weapons of mass destruction and its financing are required to be taken;

“related State actor” means an individual, entity or government which

- (a) is connected with a State listed in Column 1 of the Third Schedule;
- (b) has been identified by or under the authority of the United Nations Security Council as an individual, entity or government against which measures for the prevention, suppression and disruption of the proliferation of weapons of mass destruction and its financing are required to be taken; and
- (c) is listed in Column 2 of the Third Schedule.

(2) The Minister may by Order amend the Third Schedule.

Making counter-proliferation orders in respect of listed persons

10B.(1) The Director of Public Prosecutions may apply to a judge in Chambers for a counter-proliferation order against a person where the person is a listed person.

(2) An application for a counter-proliferation order shall be

- (a) made without delay and without notice; and
- (b) supported by affidavit deposing to the matters set out in subsection (1).

(3) Where the Director of Public Prosecutions applies for a counter-proliferation order, he shall at the same time apply to the judge for a restraining order to

- (a) freeze any
  - (i) property of the listed person;
  - (ii) property that is wholly or jointly owned or controlled, directly or indirectly, by the listed person;
  - (iii) property that is derived or generated from property or other assets owned or controlled, directly or indirectly, by the listed person;
  - (iv) property of a person acting on behalf of, or at the direction of, the listed person,

where such property is situated in Barbados; and

- (b) prohibit the listed person, directly or indirectly, from possessing, controlling or having access to any property.

- (4) The judge shall without delay
- (a) make the counter-proliferation order against the person where he is satisfied of the circumstances set out in subsection (1) in relation to the person; and
  - (b) where he makes the counter-proliferation order, make, in accordance with the Proceeds and Instrumentalities of Crime Act, 2019 (Act 2019-17), a restraining order where the requirements for the making of the restraining order under that Act are satisfied.
- (5) Sections 8(5) to (8), 9 and 10 apply with such adaptations and modifications as may be necessary to a counter-proliferation order and the person against whom that order and any related restraining order was made as those sections apply to a terrorist designation order and the person against whom the terrorist designation order and any related restraining order was made.

Restraining orders in respect of related State actors

10C.(1) The Director of Public Prosecutions shall, without delay, apply to a judge in Chambers for a restraining order to freeze all property of

- (a) a related State actor;
- (b) a person controlled by a related State actor;
- (c) a person acting on behalf of, or at the direction of, a related State actor, which is associated with any act, plot, threat or programme connected with the proliferation of weapons of mass destruction and is situated in Barbados.

(2) The judge shall make the restraining order in accordance with the Proceeds and Instrumentalities of Crime Act, 2019 (Act 2019-17)

where the requirements for the making of the restraining order under that Act are satisfied.

(3) Sections 8(5) to (8), 9 and 10 apply with such adaptations and modifications as may be necessary to a related State actor and a restraining order made under subsection (2) as those sections apply to a person against whom a terrorist designation order, and any related restraining order, was made.”.

Insertion of section 12A into Cap. 158

9. The principal Act is amended by inserting after section 12, the following:

“Attempted offences

12A. A person who attempts to commit an offence under this Act is guilty of an offence and is liable on conviction on indictment to be punished as a principal offender in relation to the offence attempted.”.

Repeal and replacement of section 15 of Cap. 158

10. Section 15 of the principal Act is repealed and the following substituted:

“Attorney-General to be competent authority

15. The Attorney-General is the competent authority of Barbados for

- (a) the exchange of information relating to criminal investigations or extradition proceedings in respect of an offence under this Act; and

- (b) the purpose of proposing any addition or removal of the name of a person from a list referred to in section 8(1) or 10A.

Act 2011-23 to apply to financing of proliferation of weapons of mass destruction etc.

16.(1) The Money Laundering and Financing of Terrorism (Prevention and Control) Act, 2011 (Act 2011-23) applies, with such adaptations and modifications as may be necessary, to the financing of the proliferation of weapons of mass destruction as that Act applies to the financing of terrorism.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), for the purpose of preventing, suppressing and disrupting the financing of the proliferation of weapons of mass destruction, in the application of sections 15, 17, 19, 21, 23, 26, 41 and 43 of the Money Laundering and Financing of Terrorism (Prevention and Control) Act, 2011 (Act 2011-23), the words “financing of terrorism” in that Act shall be construed to include “financing of the proliferation of weapons of mass destruction”.

Alteration of Constitution

16A. Section 16 of the Constitution is altered to the extent necessary to give effect to sections 8, 10B and 10C.”.

Insertion of new Schedule into Cap. 158

11. The principal Act is amended by inserting as the Third Schedule thereto, the Schedule set out in the First Schedule to this Act.

Consequential amendments
