

MEDIA RELEASE

“FSC Continues to Build on its Expertise”

Congratulations to FSC General Counsel and Board Secretary, Cyralene Benskin-Murray, who was recently recognised by ACAMS (Association of Certified Anti-Money Laundering Specialists) as the AML Professional of the Month for September, 2019.

Mrs Benskin-Murray, a Certified Anti-money Laundering Specialist (CAMS) for over 10 years, was recognised for her commitment to the anti-money laundering field. She was responsible for establishing FSC’s AML/CTF (Counter-terrorist Financing) team, which she currently directs and supervises, making sure that financial institutions implement and maintain robust AML/CTF programmes. She is a strong proponent of FSC’s role in maintaining its own robust AML/CTF supervisory framework.

Mrs Benskin-Murray holds a Masters degree in Regulation and Policy. She is a member of the Barbados Bar Association, the Bermuda Bar Association and the Law Society of Ontario. She is currently Deputy Chairperson of the Barbados AML/CTF Supervisors Committee and Co-chair of ACAMS, Barbados Chapter.
