

Biography
Mr. Warrick Ward
CEO, Financial Services Commission

Warrick Ward has over 20 years of diversified financial sector experience, having served in several senior roles within both the public and private sectors.

Since January 2023, Warrick assumed the role of the Chief Executive Officer of the Financial Services Commission, having most recently served as the Managing Director of AltoComp Consulting Inc. - a boutique firm offering corporate finance and strategic advisory services to a range of clients. Warrick has held extensive also was a Senior Manager in the Advisory practice at PricewaterhouseCoopers, where he was a senior member of the team that offers advisory services ranging from corporate finance and financial modelling to merger and acquisition strategy. Warrick also served previously as Chief Executive Officer of NCB Capital Markets (Barbados) Limited, and within the public sector, he has served in senior positions at the Financial Services Commission in Barbados, the Barbados Deposit Insurance Corporation and the Central Bank of Barbados.

Warrick has a diversified background in finance, economics, compliance and other policy-related work. He has chaired a number of policy-making committees and boards of directors. He currently sits on the Macprudential Committee of the International Association of Insurance Supervisors (IAIS).

Warrick was educated at the University of the West Indies (Cave Hill) and the University of Southampton in the UK, where he has been awarded degrees in economics, accounting and finance. Warrick has also completed a number of short-term studies, including courses at the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania and the Harvard Law School. He continues to share his varied experiences through his interaction with students, both in the formal sense as a part-time Lecturer in the Banking and Finance Masters programme at the University of the West Indies Cave Hill campus. Warrick is an avid sports enthusiast and enjoys basketball, football, watersports, motorsport and table tennis.